Catechetical Convocation 2009
“Proclaim the Word”

Saturday September 26, 2009 -- Westchester County Center, White Plains

The Westchester County Center is located at 198 Central Avenue just off the Bronx River Parkway in White Plains, New York. It is served by:

- ~ Westchester County Bee-Line Bus System (www.westchestergov.com/beelinebus, 914-813-7777)
- ~ Metro-North Commuter Railroad (www.mta.info)

→ By Train from NYC:

Take any subway or bus to Grand Central Station. Take Metro North to the White Plains Station.

→ By Train from Upstate New York:

~ Trains on the Harlem line go directly to White Plains. Once you leave the train and are on the station platform, walk in the direction of the front car of your train. Take the last exit stairwell (located on the left side of the platform). Make a left at the bottom of the stairs. Walk through a very short, well-lit tunnel. Go right upon exiting the tunnel. Walk on the path

(Metro North to your right, parking lot to your left). You will see the County Center ahead and to your left. Walk to the main County Center Parking Lot. Walk through the parking lot. At the traffic light, cross the street to the County Center.

~ For those traveling on the Hudson line, take the train to Tarrytown and pick up the Bee Line Bus ($2 in coin one way) to the Westchester County Center.

→ By car from Upstate New York:

Taconic State Parkway to its southern end; follow signs to Bronx River Parkway; travel three miles to White Plains. Use exit 22; the County Center is immediately on the right.

→ By car from the Tappan Zee Bridge and points West:

Follow New York State Thruway (I-87) to the Cross Westchester Expressway eastbound; exit 5 “Route 119 East-White Plains.” County Center is 1/2 mile on the left.

→ Parking at one of the County Center parking lots is $4 for the day. There are also metered lots nearby (bring quarters to feed the meters).
