+ The Candidates should celebrate the Rite of Sending in their own parish before arriving for the Rite of Calling the Candidates for Continuing Conversion.

Before the Rite of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion:

+ “As in the case of the catechumens, the preparation of these adults requires a considerable time, during which the faith infused in baptism must grow in them and take deep root through the pastoral formation they receive. A program training, catechesis suited to the needs, contact with the community of the faithful, and participation in certain liturgical rites are needed in order to strengthen them in the Christian life.”
(RCIA # 401)

+ “It is the responsibility of the parish community, to prepare the candidates for their fuller life in the Church. Through the experience of worship, daily life, and service in the parish community the candidates deepen their appreciation of the Church’s tradition and universal character.” (RCIA # 435)

After the Rite of Calling the Candidates to Continuing Conversion:

“The period of catechesis for these adults should be properly coordinated with the liturgical year. This is particularly true of its final phase, which should as a rule coincide with Lent. During the Lenten season penitential services should be arranged in such a way as to prepare these adults for the celebration of the sacrament of penance.”
